9. APPLICABLE LAW / ATTRIBUTION OF JURISDICTION

9.1. Applicable Law & Attribution of Jurisdiction

These Terms shall be governed by the laws of the United States and the State of New York without regard to its conflict of law provisions. Subject to the arbitration provisions below, and other than small claims actions as permitted therein, any action or proceeding arising from, relating to or in connection with these Terms or your use of the Site or purchase of products will be brought exclusively in the federal or state courts located in New York, and you irrevocably consent to the personal jurisdiction of such courts and agree that it is a convenient forum and that you will not seek to transfer such action or proceeding to any other forum or jurisdiction under the doctrine of forum non conveniens or otherwise.

9.2. Binding Arbitration of all Disputes

We believe that arbitration is a faster, more convenient and less expensive way to resolve any disputes that you may have with us. Therefore, pursuant to the Terms, if you have any dispute with us regarding or relating to your use of the Site, or the Terms, or our Purchase Policy or our Privacy Policy or any purchases or use of the products (collectively “Sisley Transactions”), you will not have the right to pursue a claim in court, or have a jury decide the claim and you will not have the right to bring or participate in any class action or similar proceeding in court or in arbitration. By using the Site, or engaging in a Sisley Transaction with us, you agree to binding arbitration as provided below: We will make every reasonable effort to informally resolve any dispute that you may have with us. If those efforts fail, by using our Site, you agree that any dispute you may have against SISLEY, and any claim Sisley may have against you, arising out of, or connected in any way with these Terms or a Sisley Transaction shall be resolved exclusively by final and binding arbitration administered by JAMS or its successor (“JAMS”) and conducted in accordance with the JAMS Streamlined Arbitration Rules And Procedures in effect at the time the arbitration is initiated or, if the amount in controversy exceeds $100,000, in accordance with the JAMS Comprehensive Arbitration Rules And Procedures then in effect (respectively, the “Applicable Rules”). The Applicable Rules can be found at www.jamsadr.com. If JAMS is no longer in existence, the Arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association or its successor (the “AAA”) instead, and conducted in accordance with the AAA Commercial Arbitration Rules in effect at that time (which shall be the “Applicable Rules” in such circumstances). If JAMS (or, if applicable, AAA) at the time the arbitration is filed has Minimum Standards of Procedural Fairness for Consumer Arbitrations in effect which would be applicable to the matter in dispute, SISLEY agrees to provide the benefit of such Minimum Standards to you to the extent they are more favorable than the comparable arbitration provisions set for herein, provided, however, that in no event may such Minimum Standards contravene or restrict the application of subpart (e) or (i) below. Furthermore, nothing herein shall prevent any party from seeking provisional remedies in aid of arbitration from a court of appropriate jurisdiction. You further agree that:

(a) the arbitration shall be conducted before a single arbitrator selected in accordance with the Applicable Rules or by mutual agreement between you and SISLEY (the “Arbitrator”);

(b) the Arbitrator, and not any federal, state or local court or agency, shall have the exclusive authority to resolve any dispute arising under or relating to the validity, interpretation, applicability, enforceability or formation of the Terms, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of the Terms is void or voidable;

(c) the arbitration shall be held either (i) at a location determined by JAMS (or, if applicable, AAA) pursuant to the Applicable Rules (provided that such location is reasonably convenient for you and does not require you to travel in excess of 100 miles from your home or place of business); or (ii) at such other location as may be mutually agreed upon by you and Sisley; or (iii) at your election, if the only claims in the arbitration are asserted by you and are for less than $10,000 in aggregate, by telephone or by written submission;

(d) the Arbitrator (i) shall apply internal laws of the State of New York consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act and applicable statutes of limitations, or to the extent (if any) that federal law prevails, shall apply the law of the United States, irrespective of any conflict of law principles, (ii) shall entertain any motion to dismiss, motion to strike, motion for judgment on the pleadings, motion for complete or partial summary judgment, motion for summary adjudication, or any other dispositive motion consistent with New York or federal rules of procedure, as applicable; (iii) shall honor claims of privilege recognized at law; and (iv) shall have authority to award any form of legal or equitable relief;

(e) the arbitration can resolve only your and/or SISLEY’s individual claims, and the Arbitrator shall have no authority to entertain or arbitrate any claims on a class or representative basis, or to consolidate or join the claims of other persons or parties who may be similarly situated;

(f) the Arbitrator shall issue a written award supported by a statement of decision setting forth the Arbitrator’s complete determination of the dispute and the factual findings and legal conclusions relevant to it (an “Award”). Judgment upon the Award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof or having jurisdiction over the relevant party or its assets;

(g) in the event you are able to demonstrate that the costs of arbitration will be prohibitive as compared to the costs of litigation, SISLEY will pay as much of your filing and hearing fees in connection with the arbitration as the Arbitrator deems necessary to prevent the arbitration from being cost-prohibitive, regardless of the outcome of the arbitration, unless the Arbitrator determines that your claim(s) were frivolous or asserted in bad faith;

(h) in the event you recover an Award greater than SISLEY’s last written settlement offer, the Arbitrator shall also have the right to include in your Award SISLEY’s reimbursement of your reasonable and actual out-of-pocket attorneys’ fees associated with the arbitration, but SISLEY shall in all events bear its own attorneys’ fees; and

(i) with the exception of subpart (e) above, if any part of this arbitration provision is deemed to be invalid, unenforceable or illegal, or otherwise conflicts with the Applicable Rules, then the balance of this arbitration provision shall remain in effect and shall be construed in accordance with its terms as if the invalid, unenforceable, illegal or conflicting provision were not contained herein. If, however, subpart (e) is found to be invalid, unenforceable or illegal, then the entirety of this arbitration provision shall be null and void, and neither you nor SISLEY shall be entitled to arbitrate their dispute, and must instead bring any claims in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(j) SISLEY may modify these arbitration provisions, but such modifications shall only become effective thirty (30) days after SISLEY has given notice of such modifications and only on a prospective basis for claims arising from Sisley Transactions occurring after the effective date of such notification.

(k) Notwithstanding the foregoing arbitration provisions, at your option, you may bring any claim you have against SISLEY in your local small claims court within the United States, if your claim is within such court's jurisdictional limit; provided such court does not have the authority to entertain any claims on a class or representative basis, or to consolidate or join the claims of other persons or parties who may be similarly situated in such proceeding.
